Chad is married to Nichole. They have one son. He's been a member of CCBC for 8 years. He has served in previous churches as a youth pastor. He has served at CCBC as a Life Group Leader.

Here's what Chad had to say about himself...

- BA in Ministerial Education and Biblical Studies from God's Bible College in Cincinnati, OH
- 19 years in the Marine Corps, Planning to retire next year.
- 20 years married, Evan is in his senior year of high school and enrolled in College for next year.
- Born and raised in church, my parents were missionaries, I served as a youth pastor after graduating college.
- Raised with much Biblically sound teaching, but too much emphasis on our own works. My military career took me away from the small churches and opened my eyes to see more of God's grace and holiness through Jesus more than works.
